

ANOTHER quiet week has passed, there being only a few events of any importance in the social world. Many of the people who have been east or west for the winter and the spring months are returning, however, and the city may be brighter than it has been for some time. Only one wedding took place during the week, although numerous matrimonial alliances are on for next month. The opening week will, however, be much brighter than the one just passed, several large receptions being planned.

Club work for the present year is practically done, and club members are at leisure for the warm weather. A number of people are already making plans for the summer months, and things socially are in a very unsettled condition.

The club year was brought to a close with the annual meeting of the Reviewers, which was held last Monday at the home of Mrs. E. O. Lee. The only topic for the afternoon was given by Mrs. W. F. Adams, and was a thoroughly prepared paper on Mrs. Humphrey Ward's latest novel, "Lady Rose's Daughter." The book was handled in a most pleasing and skilful manner. The review was prefaced with a talk on Mrs. Ward and her works, and the writer characterized this last as by far the greatest work put forth by the novelist. The program was read from the work, and the opinions of reviewers quoted, but the most enjoyable part of the paper was that from the pen of the speaker. The book is a study of heredity, and deals with many questions in the deeper life of the individual. As such it is a strong, yet not altogether a pleasing work. The last meeting of the Reviewers will be held a week from Monday when the annual election of officers will take place.

The Alumni association of the High school are making elaborate preparations for the dance to be given at Christensen's hall Friday evening for the benefit of the High school fund. The list of chaperons includes Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mrs. W. Montague Perry, Mrs. Simon Bamberger, Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury, Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, Mrs. John E. Cowan, Mrs. W. A. Nelson, Mrs. James W. Neill and Mrs. John Dorn.

Two engagements of extreme interest were announced during the past week, that of Miss Norma Dickert to Mr. J. G. Sawyer, and that of Miss Francis Howat to Mr. J. Fred Odell. Both weddings are to be elaborate June affairs. The Dickert-Sawyer marriage will take place June 3, and that of Miss Howat and Mr. Odell will be solemnized on June 20.

The young people who are away at school and at college are already turning their attention to their trips toward home, and within a few weeks there will be a general home-coming among them. Miss June Blintz will leave school shortly for home, and will stop at Mercedes' home on her way to her home, and later at Cornell for the boat races.

One of the large receptions of the week will be that for which Mrs. Edw. Kimball, Miss Mary Kimball and Miss Katie Williams have issued invitations for Thursday. It will be at the Kimball home and the hours are from 3 till 6.

Mrs. Frank Kelsey will give a Brownie recital Thursday evening at the Central Christian church. She will be assisted by Mrs. Ella Cummings Wetzel. The programme is an excellent one, and includes an interpretation of Abt Vogler with music.

Mrs. Igleheart and her guest, Miss Fannie Elliott, will receive informally tomorrow afternoon from 3 till 6 o'clock. Miss Eleanor Dooley, Miss McMillan and the Misses Sherman will assist in receiving. No cards have been issued.

Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard will give a large evening party in honor of Miss Edith Perry of Michigan, who is to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. W. Montague Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Doughall will entertain at a large card party Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Daly. The affair will be given in the parlors of the Kenyon.

The tea to be given Wednesday at the post by Mrs. Pardee and Mrs. Sturges will be given in the Officers' club, and the hours are to be from 4 to 6.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Neill will be at home as usual this afternoon and evening. Miss Neill will not be home for some weeks yet.

Mrs. McLaughlin is expected home some time during the week. She will remain in the city only a short time and will leave in mid-summer time for a European tour extending over two years.

Mrs. Judge is expected home during the week from a lengthy stay in the Orient. Mr. Frank Judge left during the past week to meet her on the coast. Mrs. Baldwin is remaining in the city for a visit with her mother.

Mrs. Angus T. Wright and her daughter, Mrs. F. Grant, Jr., who have been visiting with the Grant family, have returned to their home in Ogden.

Mr. Roscoe Broeden has returned from a visit of a month with friends in the east.

Mrs. S. S. Dickinson and Miss Emily

Larsen, the soloists of the Unitarian church, will leave tomorrow for Ephraim, where Miss Larsen will sing at the commencement exercises of the Beaver academy.

Captain and Mrs. McKenna of St. Louis will be in the city some time during the week, and will be the guests for a while of Senator and Mrs. Kearns.

Mrs. Donald Rose, who has spent the past few weeks in the city, has returned to her home in Chicago.

Mrs. Ernest R. Eldredge of Portland is spending some time in the city with her sisters and friends.

Mrs. Clifford R. Pearsall has returned from a visit of a few weeks in Butte.

Miss Alice Paul entertained the College Women of the university at her home yesterday afternoon.

Miss Dickert entertained a party of young ladies yesterday afternoon, in honor of Miss Norma Dickert.

Mrs. J. M. Dart will give a review of "The Valley of Decision" tomorrow evening at the Alhambra at the First Congregational church.

The Orpheus club, assisted by several local societies, will go to Bountiful next Saturday and give a concert at the opera house.

Mrs. Sidney Evans will entertain the ladies of the Aid society of her church at her home Thursday afternoon at a Kensington.

Miss Elizabeth Fitzgerald of the Union school will leave this morning for Kimberly, where she opens a summer school.

The P. E. O. society will meet with Mrs. A. J. Gorham, 413 East Second South street, Saturday next at 2 p. m.

Mr. Francis Frisch announces the engagement of his daughter, Helen, to Mr. W. H. Penner of Chicago. The wedding will take place in June.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. S. G. Hicks was hostess at an informal event arranged at her home for the Shakespeare section of the Ladies' Literary club. The programme was listened to with interest, and consisted of a paper by Mrs. Joel Priest on "Types of Shakespeare's Heroines," a reading by Mrs. William Igleheart of Wolsey's "Parvultus" to "Ambition," and a talk by Miss Grace Della Davis, who was a guest of honor, on "Impersonation of Shakespeare." Miss Davis illustrated her references by recitations of Shakespeare's plays. Mrs. Igleheart recited some bits of verse from Riley and Kipling, by request. Miss Egan played two selections on the harp, and Miss Mahan sang two numbers to harp accompaniment.

Among the guests present were Miss Davis, Miss Paul, Miss Decker, Miss Egan, Miss Maud Egan, Miss Mahan, Mrs. Igleheart, Mrs. Priest, Mrs. J. M. Dart, Mrs. William Bird, Mrs. Park, Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Alvah Lewis, Mrs. Blintz, Mrs. McDermott, Mrs. Myer, Mrs. Farnham, Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. White, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. L. M. Bailey, Mrs. Gorham, Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. H. C. Wallace, Mrs. Watson.

The marriage of Miss May Curtis and Professor William Welsh was solemnized in the temple last Wednesday, and was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Anderson, cousins of the bride. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Curtis, former of Thatcher, Ariz., but of Logan, Ariz., and Mrs. Welsh will make their home at Thatcher.

At the reception there were present Professor and Mrs. William Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Curtis, Gramma Curtis, Miss Jane Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Armstrong, Miss Thelma Armstrong, Mr. Sam W. Welsh, Miss Agnes Welsh, Mrs. Nellie Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. J. Treweek, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. George McKelner, Mr. and Mrs. William Husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strickley and son, Mrs. Nellie Cotton, Master Harold Couton and Derald Couton, Miss Sallie Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. F. Brown, Miss Lottie Powell, Mrs. M. A. Griggs, Mr. Tom Husbands, Mrs. C. Stuyves of Ogden and Miss Bertha Jackson of Glenwood.

Miss Gertrude Lienhard was surprised by a number of friends Monday evening. Six games of progressive high-five were played, prizes being won by Miss Edith Elliott, Mr. Walter Williams, Miss Tompkins and Mr. Alf Cardwell. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was enjoyed in music. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams, Mr. and Mrs. George Shelleross, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Cardwell, Misses Annie Sulder, Mattie Butler, Edith Lewis, Ethel McEwan, Nellie Brewster, Miss Gibson and Miss Tompkins, Messrs. Davis, Harmon, Joe Cardwell, Willard Arnold and Walter Williams.

Master Richard Amalpus Lee gave a party in honor of his fifth birthday anniversary at the home of his parents on the Edw. Kimball on the afternoon of the 15th, from 2 to 6. The guests were Margaret and Stewart Smith, Douglas Harold, Milroy Peake, Donald Mayne, Gladys Evans, Helen Ferguson, Roy Ferguson, Roger Higgins, Clifford Springer, Freddie Napper and Katie Sheets. The table was decorated with a profusion of flowers and by candles arranged so as to show the year of birth and the age. After luncheon the little guests enjoyed themselves with various games and sports upon the lawn.

A very pleasant musical was given on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Eva Dunyon. Those present were Mrs. Marshall Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. George Shelleross, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Cardwell, Misses Annie Sulder, Mattie Butler, Edith Lewis, Ethel McEwan, Nellie Brewster, Miss Gibson and Miss Tompkins, Messrs. Davis, Harmon, Joe Cardwell, Willard Arnold and Walter Williams.

Mrs. John McDonald entertained a number of her friends at a Kensington Thursday afternoon at her home on Fifth South street. In the games of the afternoon the prize winners were Mrs. Charles Stuart, Mrs. Daynes and Eleanor Margetts. At 5 o'clock delicious refreshments were served, after which an excellent musical programme was enjoyed. The drawing room was beautifully decorated in white and purple. The large sitting rooms were in pink and white. In the center of each table was a bouquet of cut flowers in pink and white, each chandelier being entwined with smilax. Purple and green were used in the dining room, where punch was served. Mrs. McDonald was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. R. Chamberlain, Miss Laura Hunter, Miss Edna Brown and Miss Norma Fenton.

The Thistle club will give a dancing party next Friday evening. The last party given by the club was a most successful one.

The May club spent a very pleasant evening on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ford on Third street. Prizes were awarded the winners at games as follows: Mrs. J. D. Ford, Mr. W. Williams, Mrs. Williams and Mr. J. D. Ford and Mr. Harvey.

Delicious refreshments were served in the dining room by the hostess. Some excellent musical selections were rendered by the club band, after which the club adjourned for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Geary have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Nellie to W. E. Coulam, to take place June 10.

OGDEN. A pretty party was given Wednesday at the Mount Fort school, in honor of Miss Pearl Richards, whose work at the school as teacher ceased that day and whose wedding to Joseph McFarlane is to be one of the early June events. The party took the form of a bowl shower, each guest bringing some dainty form of bowl as a gift to the bride. A programme of music with informal dancing was enjoyed in Miss Woodcock's room, after which luncheon was served in Miss Bennett's room. The rooms were tastefully decorated with cut flowers and the place cards were white. The guests were: Mesdames Mary Richards, L. L. Wade, Peerman and Maude Dee Porter; Misses Lizzie Dee, Maggie Dee, Lettie Richards, Olla Barker, Clara Eldredge, Kate Carnahan and Elizabeth Orth.

The wedding of Miss Helene Bohn of Winona, Minn., and Herbert R. Macmillan of Ogden will be solemnized Wednesday evening of next week at the home of the bride. Mr. Macmillan left yesterday morning for St. Paul and after attending to some business in that city will go to Winona for the ceremony. Miss Bohn is a sister of Mrs. G. J. Bohn and is very well and favorably known in this city, where she has visited. Mr. Macmillan is the son of a well-known attorney of Ogden. Mr. and Mrs. Macmillan will come to Ogden in June and will reside here.

Misses Maude and Belle Littlefield, of Morgan, were guests in Ogden Friday and Saturday of last week.

The Weber stake academy gave a ball Friday evening at Dignan's academy. Charles Woods, of Ogden, and Mrs. F. C. Woods, left Monday for San Francisco, and sailed Saturday from the latter port for New Zealand. They will spend three years in mission work.

Charles R. Hollingsworth left yesterday morning for the east and will be absent about three weeks.

Joseph Ballantyne has arranged a recital of his pupils in the tabernacle for tomorrow night. A fine programme is to be given and invitations are extended to all who are interested in first class music.

Mrs. John J. McGregor and Mrs. Alma Lambert spent the week in Ogden from Salt Lake, the guests of relatives and friends.

The Alumni association of the Ogden High school will give a reception and ball at Dignan's the evening of June 3 in honor of the class of 1903. The officers of the Alumni association, elected Thursday evening for the year, are: President, Miss Elizabeth Orth; vice president, Spencer Stone; secretary, Genevieve Douglas.

The Knights of Pythias had a gala time Monday evening in the lodge room, the occasion being the fraternal visit of the grand lodge officers to the largest lodge in the jurisdiction. The team of the local lodge conferred the third rank and did the work in an excellent manner as to win the heartiest praise from members of the grand lodge. The exercises were followed by a banquet, at which John S. Corlew was toastmaster and a number of very happy responses were made.

EUREKA.
